Discover the Sacred Valley & Short Inca Trail in three Days

Go on a three-day Sacred Valley + Short Inca Trail adventure—the easiest way to see the best of Cusco without a long trek. Start with vibrant markets and impressive Inca sites across the Sacred Valley, a region rich in history and framed by big Andean views. This trip helps you connect with Peru's cultural roots while you enjoy the mountain scenery.

On day two—perfect if you're short on time—the Short Inca Trail drops you straight into the magic of the Classic Inca Trail to Machu Picchu, passing Wiñay Wayna and entering through the famous Sun Gate. See the Lost City of the Incas near sunset, when it's quieter and even more special. After a night in Aguas Calientes, return the next morning to explore Machu Picchu with a knowledgeable guide, then enjoy panoramic views on the train ride back.

Whether it's your first visit or a long-awaited return, this itinerary blends history, easy adventure, and stunning scenery into one memorable journey.

¿Why to hike Sacred Valley & Short Inca Trail?

- Explore the best of Sacred Valley with Maras & Moray.
- Hike the Short Inca Trail and visit the Sun Gate.
- Visit Machu Picchu twice (at sunset and sunrise).
- Board the Panoramic Vistadome trains.

Day 01

Sacred Valley Tour

Our tour guide will meet you at your hotel in Cusco at 7:00 am for a full-day exploration of the Sacred Valley, including Maras and Moray. The journey begins with a 30-minute drive to the Alpaca Center, where we will interact with llamas, alpacas, guanacos, and vicuñas while learning about their importance to Andean culture.

Next, we'll drive to the Mirador of Taray, which offers breathtaking views of the Sacred Valley, the Urubamba River, and the Andes Mountains. We'll then visit the Pisac Inca site, known for its stunning agricultural terraces and ancient constructions. We will continue the tour to the lower village of Pisac, where we'll explore the bustling handicraft market. After bargaining at the market, we'll travel and enjoy a buffet lunch at an Andean restaurant in Urubamba.

After lunch, our tour continues to the agricultural laboratory of Moray and the Salineras of Maras, where locals have been harvesting salt using traditional techniques since Incan times. The tour will conclude with a visit to the town of Ollantaytambo, a living testament to Inca culture, where we can explore ancient streets still used by locals. We'll spend the night in a hotel near the town.

Day 02

Ollantaytambo - Km 104 - Sun Gate - Machu Picchu

We will pick you up from your hotel at 5:30 AM and board an early train to the Inca Trail at Km 104 (Chachabamba). The train ride, about 1.2 hours, descends from the highlands into the cloud forest. Upon arrival, we will disembark, cross a hanging bridge, and reach the first checkpoint, where you must present your original passport. Then we will have breakfast and prepare for the trek.

The Short Inca Trail begins with a guided tour of the Chachabamba Inca site, followed by a 3 to 4-hour gradual ascent to Wiñay Wayna, the most famous site on the Classic Inca Trail. Your guide will lead you through the most important buildings, including temples, waterfalls, storehouses, and agricultural terraces. We will enjoy a freshly prepared lunch from our expert trekking chefs at the nearby campsite.

The second part is a leisurely 1-hour hike to the Sun Gate (Intipunku), where we will enjoy our first spectacular views of Machu Picchu, Huayna Picchu, the Urubamba River, and the Andes Mountains. We will watch the sunset over Machu Picchu, then continue to the upper part of the citadel for another hour to capture magnificent photographs with fewer afternoon visitors

Lastly, a 30-minute bus ride brings us to the town of Aguas Calientes (Machu Picchu Pueblo). Dinner is served in a local restaurant, and we will spend the night in a 3-star hotel.

Day 03

Explore Machu Picchu - Return to Cusco

On the last day of the tour, we will explore the ‘Lost City of the Incas,’ Machu Picchu. After breakfast at the hotel, we will board one of the first buses and arrive at Machu Picchu before sunrise. During the guided tour, we will spend about 2 to 3 hours exploring Machu Picchu, visiting the main temples, palaces, farming terraces, and most important buildings. We will also have time to participate in an additional mountain hike, such as Huayna Picchu Mountain or Machu Picchu Mountain (not included - permits need to be booked in advance).

After visiting Machu Picchu, we will return by bus to Aguas Calientes, enjoy lunch (not included), and then board the afternoon Vistadome Panoramic trains back to Ollantaytambo. Our team will wait for you there and take you back to your hotel in Cusco by private vehicle. The expected arrival time is around 7:30 PM.
