Best of the Best

Two days, one story that stays with you.

Your trip starts in Cusco and continues to an alpaca farm to see llamas, alpacas, vicuñas, and guanacos. Next, you will go to the Taray lookout for beautiful views of the valley, visit the Pisac Inca site, and explore the Pisac Market for handmade crafts.

After lunch in Urubamba, you will visit the circular farming terraces of Moray and the Maras salt mines, where families have collected salt for many years. You will also visit Ollantaytambo, a historic Inca town with impressive stone structures. In the evening, a train will take you to Aguas Calientes, where you will spend the night in a comfortable hotel.

The second day, you will take one of the first buses to Machu Picchu. Our expert tour guides will show you around the ancient city of Machu Picchu. The tour with a guide lasts for two to three hours and shows you the best temples, houses, terraces, and views at Machu Picchu.

Why Sacred Valley & Machu Picchu?

- Explore Pisac, Moray, Salineras Maras, and Ollantaytambo
- Marvel at local markets and alpaca farms
- Visit Machu Picchu early in the morning with an expert guide

Day 1

Cusco - Pisac - Moray - Maras - Ollantaytambo - Aguas Calientes

We'll pick you up from your hotel in Cusco around 7:00 a.m. and drive about 30 minutes to an Alpaca Farm to meet llamas, alpacas, vicuñas, and guanacos. Our guides will explain the differences and why these South American camelids are important to Andean culture. Then we'll stop at Taray viewpoint for great views of the Sacred Valley and the Andes.

Next, we'll visit the Pisac Archaeological Site above the town to see impressive farming terraces shaped to the mountain, ancient tombs on steep slopes, temples, and aqueducts. Afterward, we'll descend to explore the colorful Pisac Market, where women from nearby villages sell handmade products—perfect for shopping and experiencing local culture.

We continue to Urubamba for a buffet lunch made with fresh local ingredients. In the afternoon, we'll explore Moray's circular terraces, believed to have been an Inca agricultural laboratory, and the Maras Salt Mines, where more than 3,000 pools are still harvested by local families using traditional techniques.

To finish, we'll explore Ollantaytambo's temples and terraces, plus the town's narrow stone streets and Inca water channels. Dinner will be served at a local restaurant, and at 7:00 p.m. you'll board the Expedition train to Aguas Calientes for an overnight in a comfortable hotel.

Day 2

Aguas Calientes - Machu Picchu - Return to Cusco

We will wake up early for the most important day of your trip. After breakfast at the hotel, you'll board one of the first buses up to Machu Picchu. Once you arrive at the main entrance, you will need to present your entrance tickets and your original passport. Once inside, you will explore the best of Machu Picchu with our expert tour guides. The circuit and time will depend on your booking time, so book early to get the best circuit and times.

Our expert guides will explain the history and secrets of Machu Picchu and take you to explore the terraces, temples, and palaces. The guided tour takes 2–3 hours. After that, you will have time to hike Huayna Picchu Mountain or Machu Picchu Montaña (you can only choose one, and it is not included). Advance booking is required if you want to add these mountains.

This tour includes Circuit 2, the most comprehensive route through Machu Picchu. If it's sold out, we'll arrange the best available option (Circuit 1 or 3). We strongly recommend booking early since tickets and time slots sell out quickly.

After Machu Picchu, you will board the bus back down to Aguas Calientes, where you can enjoy lunch at a restaurant of your choice on your own, and board the afternoon Expedition train back to Ollantaytambo. From there, our private van will transfer you back to hotel in Cusco, arriving around 7:30 p.m.

What to bring

When preparing for the Machu Picchu Tour, it's best to pack light and focus on comfort for changing weather. This experience doesn't involve trekking, but you'll still walk around the citadel and spend time in sun and rain. Here are the essentials you should bring:

Valid Passport

Required for entrance to archaeological sites and checkpoints.

Extra Money

Extra money for handicrafts at local markets.

Personal Medication

Always carry your own medicine in case of emergencies.

Water bottle or camelback

Stay hydrated throughout the day.

Sunblock

Protect your skin from strong Andean sun.

Sun hat

Essential to shield yourself from UV rays.

Sun glasses

Reduce glare and protect your eyes at high altitude.

Waterproof jacket

Weather in the Andes is unpredictable; be prepared.

Small backpack

Carry your essentials comfortably.

Camera and charger

Capture the incredible landscapes and memories.
