Cusco City Tour

We will pick you up from your hotel in Cusco city at 1:00 pm or 9 am and transfer you to the Plaza de Armas, the main square of Cusco, located in the heart of the town, which is surrounded by many historical buildings, including the Cathedral and the Church of the Society of Jesus (La Compañía de Jesús). The square is a popular gathering place for locals and tourists, often used for public events and festivals. You will start a walking tour, exploring Cusco's top attractions, restaurants, and shops.

After the main square, you will walk into the most important streets and neighborhoods, including the 12-angled Stone Street, San Blas, and Loreto Street. Exploring these streets and neighborhoods will give you a great sense of the history and culture of Cusco.

Next, you will visit Coricancha, the Temple of the Sun, a must-visit attraction in Cusco. It was one of the most important temples of the Inca Empire and was dedicated to worshipping the sun god Inti. The temple was covered in gold and decorated with precious stones, making it one of the most impressive structures of the Inca Empire. After the Spanish conquered Cusco, they built the Church of Santo Domingo on top of the temple, using some of the Inca stonework as the foundation for the church.

The second part of the tour starts with a 15-minute drive to Sacsayhuaman, a massive Inca fortress located just outside of Cusco. It is one of the most impressive examples of Inca stonework and engineering, and a visit to this site is a must for anyone interested in the history and culture of the Inca Empire. The fortress is made up of massive stone walls that were built without the use of mortar. The enormous stones weigh over 300 tons and are fitted together with incredible precision. Each year, on June 24th, the Inti Raymi is celebrated at this place to worship the Sun.

Continue driving to Qenqo, known for its underground chambers and passageways. Puka Pukara, a reddish color military fortress, and finally, Tambomachay, known for its series of aqueducts, canals, and waterfalls.

On the way back, you will stop at Cristo Blanco (Statue of Jesus) to enjoy the panoramic views of Cusco and the Andean landscape. The statue of Jesus was a gift from the Palestinian community in Cusco and was installed in 1945. It is made of white stone and stands over 8 meters (26 ft) tall, making it one of the largest statues in the city. The site is famous for tourists and locals, especially at sunset, with stunning views.
